1. Anti-Counterfeiting and Trade Agreement (ACTA) – 11th and final round of the negotiations

The 11th and final round of the negotiations for the Anti-Counterfeiting Trade Agreement (ACTA) was concluded successfully in Tokyo, Japan on October 2, 2010. Draft agenda:

/ press release:

Participants in the negotiations constructively resolved nearly all substantive issues and produced a consolidated and largely finalized text of the proposed agreement, which will be submitted ad referendum to their respective authorities. The participants agreed to work expeditiously to resolve the small number of outstanding issues that require further examination in capitals, with a view to finalizing the text of the agreement as promptly as possible. The participants will publicly release the text of the agreement shortly.

Course: "Intellectual Property Law: A practice-oriented course" – November 03, 10 and 17 2010 in Bern

For the third time, the Federal Institute of Intellectual Property (IPI) is offering a three day module in German for clerical staff responsible for the administrative procedures regarding protective rights. The course is intended for clerical staff in trademark and patent law firms as well as those working in the IP sections of their firms or industries. Based on demand, the module includes all practical aspects of filing, registering and transferring protective rights, nationally and internationally. It offers participants a complete and well-founded introduction into the various protective rights areas. You can find the programme for the day and further information only in German: <https://www.ige.ch/de/schulung/immaterialgueterrechte-eine-praxisorientierte-ausbildung.html>.

Yours sincerely,

Federal Institute of Intellectual Property
Felix Addor
Deputy Director General
