The IPI newsletters on patents, trade marks and legal information

The IPI’s specialist divisions regularly publish newsletters. In them, you can find information on important happenings in the field of intellectual property, tips, and information on upcoming events and courses.

Linked below you will find an archive of previous newsletters from each specialist field. You can also subscribe to the newsletter or change the settings of your existing account.

Newsletter archive

› Trade Marks (in German and French only)
› Legal Information
› Patents and Designs (in German and French only)

Newsletter registration

Subscription to the other newsletters is only available in German and French.

Change your newsletter account settings

Here you can change the settings of your newsletter account:

› Newsletter – login