Services

The IPI provides various services related to intellectual property. Due to their know-how in the various fields of intellectual property, our experts can respond to your individual needs.

Patent searches

IP rights, particularly patent documents, contain enormous amounts of information on companies and technologies. This data is accessible to everyone meaning it can be used for research purposes. The IPI can also assist you with its various search products.

Patent searches
We offer high-quality worldwide patent and trademark searches under the ip-search label.

Customised patent and technology searches
Professional trademark searches
Learn more about protecting your products, services and innovations with concise information provided by our trademark, patent, design and copyright experts in our practice-related training courses based on specific case studies.

Courses by legal field